Chapter Description

Brief Description of Your Chapter*:

CAA Norway is an inclusive and supportive network for those working with cultural heritage in Norway, with a focus on technical and analytical applications, data management, innovation, and outreach. The chapter aims to bring together those in developer-led archaeology and heritage management with researchers, students and other practitioners for knowledge exchange. CAA-Norway organizes workshops and conferences with a Nordic focus, where we welcome a broad range of topics for discussion and idea development.

CAA-Norway was formed in 2008 as a national chapter of the international organization Computer Applications and Quantitative Methods in Archaeology (CAA).

Report for the CAA National Chapter of Norway

Reporting Period*: 2021-June 2022

Submitted by*: Rebecca J S Cannell

Date Submitted*: 09/07/2022

Update on the National Chapter Activities*: (Please insert additional pages, if needed)

In October 2021, CAA Norway organized a one-day workshop on 3D documentation in archaeology. The workshop was held digitally, due to covid restrictions.

The board hold regular meetings, and are currently planning a conference in October 2022, in Oslo, which will be in a hybrid format.

Updates for CAA's ESC

Is there any information about your chapter or its activities that you would like to tell CAA's Executive Steering Committee? This information will only be shared with the CAA's officers and will not be made publicly available.

CAA-Norway's membership is based upon those registering for conferences and events, and therefore does not hold a list of members per se. All events are free to attend, as funding is secured by internal funding from institutions.

Due to the success of the 2020 Nordic conference CAA-Norway hosted, we have reached out on occasions to CAA- Denmark and CAA- Sweden, concerning the possibility of cooperation for conferences and workshops. However, CAA- Denmark has a differing annual rhythm to CAA-Norway, and CAA- Sweden is currently reorganizing, therefore we are now continuing to host our own events, but hope to re-establish cooperation if that is appealing to all.
